Practicing Before the First DCA

Presented by

Tallahassee Women Lawyers Young Lawyers Section

This is the first of a three-part series designed to help new attorneys and law students in navigating their first years of practice. The program will feature a judicial panel discussion on professionalism, a speed mentoring session, and speakers will also discuss the appeals process. We will end the morning with a tour of the courthouse. To RSVP, or for any questions, please email twyounglawyers@gmail.com.

February 23, 2017
8:30am to 12:00pm
First District Court of Appeal

TWL's Diversity & Inclusion Leadership Award

TWL is accepting nominations for its inaugural Diversity & Inclusion Leadership Award! Through this award, TWL desires to shine a light on good practices in our community and to inspire others to replicate successful initiatives.

The Diversity & Inclusion Leadership Award seeks to recognize individuals, businesses, government entities, and professional associations who display leadership in fostering diversity in the workplace, or within the community, and to highlight contributions that advance the cause of justice and equality.

This award is not limited to legal organizations or lawyers, and TWL is hoping for a diverse range of nominees from the community. Nominations will be accepted until February 27, 2017.

Click on the links to find the award description and the nomination form attached. Please contact Hannah Monroe with nominations or questions.
